++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry and bright with sunny spells, still warm in sunshine.

Today:
A dry and bright day with sunny spells. Feeling warm again in the afternoon sunshine, but still cooler near the Irish Sea coast with onshore winds and sunshine will become increasingly hazy as high cloud thickens. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry, bright end to the day, then rather cloudy overnight but some clear spells with risk of a grass frost in places, though with a light or moderate southeasterly breeze. Minimum temperature 1 deg C (34 deg F).

Saturday:
Perhaps an early frost. Then dry and bright with cloud tending to thin and break leaving some warm sunny spells in afternoon, but cool near coasts with moderate southeasterly breeze. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Mainly dry and bright with still some warm spells of sunshine, but cloudier on Monday and Tuesday with chance of showers and cooler. Fresher northeast winds on Tuesday..
